Alexandra Hospital for Children with Hip Disease

AND

KETTLEWELL CONVALESCENT HOME

(In connection with St. Bartholomew's Hospital).

OBJECTS OF THE HOSPITAL.

The Hospital is for the reception, maintenance, treatment, and education of children suffering from tuberculous and non-tuberculous diseases of the bones and joints.

RULES FOR ADMISSION.

Girls and boys are received up to the age of sixteen. A weekly contribution is required.

No child suffering from any infectious disease, or coming from an infected house, can be admitted to the Hospital.

All children should have been vaccinated before admission.

Application for admission should be made to the Secretary, to whom cheques, crossed and to order, should be made payable. Children living near Swanley may be brought to be examined at the Hospital by appointment with the Medical Superintendent. Patients living in the country, if they cannot come to Swanley for examination, may obtain from the Secretary a form of medical certificate, to be filled in by their Medical Attendant, which, when completed, should be returned to the Secretary.

The collection of Letters of Recommendation for individual patients is not permitted.

OUT-PATIENTS.

Out-patients, who were formerly seen at St. Bartholomew's Hospital by courtesy of the Treasurer and Almoners, are now seen by appointment with the Medical Superintendent, at the Hospital at Swanley.

,VISITING DAYS.

The Hospital is open to visitors daily, from 2-0 to 4-0 p.m., and to friends of patients on the second Saturday and the Sunday following the fourth Saturday in each month, from 2-30 to 4-0 p.m., or at other times by appointment with the Matron.

In order to avoid risk of infection, children under sixteen years are not admitted as visitors.

The Annual Report

OF THE

ALEXANDRA HOSPITAL FOR CHILDREN WITH HIP DISEASE

AND

1939

The Committee of Management have the pleasure of submitting to the Governors and Subscribers their seventy-third Annual Report.

During the past year the work of the Hospital has continued satisfactorily, although the treatment of some patients perforce suffered interruption on the outbreak of war. Like the majority of kindred institutions, the Hospital was included in the Emergency Hospital Scheme of the Ministry of Health, and consequently, at the beginning of September, was requested to discharge to their homes as many children as possible in order to provide beds for casualties. Later on, however, as it did not appear likely that such beds would be immediately required, permission was given for them to be filled again, provided that they could be vacated at short notice. Then, in the early part of the current year, the Hospital was released temporarily from the obligation to reserve beds for casualties, and was granted permission to place the full complement of its beds at the disposal of its ordinary patients, most of whom are children from the County of Kent. Readers of the Report will remember that in 1927 an arrangement, sanctioned by the Charity Commissioners, was made between the Hospital and the Kent County Council whereby an agreed number of beds is provided for Kentish children, the larger part of which is reserved for patients suffering from tuberculous disease of the bones and joints, and the smaller part for the treatment of non-tuberculous cases. In pursuance of this scheme, out-patient clinics are now established at Ashford, Margate, Sevenoaks and Sheerness, at which patients are treated by the Hospital Staff.

The number of children under treatment during the year was one hundred and forty-nine. Of this number, forty-nine were discharged cured, nineteen improved, three with the diagnosis not confirmed, and five not much improved; two were transferred to infectious hospitals, and one to a general hospital, while seventy children remained in the Hospital on the 31st December. The average number of beds occupied for the first eight months of the year was 95.4, and for the last four months 73.66, while the average number for the whole year was 88.14. The comparatively large number of children discharged with their condition improved was composed for the most part of children sent home on the outbreak of war, some of whom have since been readmitted for completion of their treatment, while others attend as out-patients at one or other of the clinics visited by the Hospital Staff. The fact that there were only seventy children in the Hospital at the end of the year, in spite of the permission given by the Ministry of Health to fill empty beds, was partly owing to the stipulation made at the same time that beds thus filled must be able to be vacated at short notice—a stipulation difficult to observe in the case of many orthopædic patients. An additional reason was that it was not considered advisable for the Hospital's full complement of one hundred beds to be used until additional measures had been taken for protection against fire in view of the fact that some of the possible exits normally available in such an emergency had been obstructed with sandbags.

Particulars as to the treatment of the children and the results will be found in the Medical Superintendent's Report on page 16.

Resignation of Mr. Stanley Smith

During the past year the Hospital has suffered a grievous loss in the retirement of Mr. Stanley Smith, who had been its Secretary for forty-six years, during which he had served it most admirably. Indeed, it may be said that the present position of the Alexandra Hospital is solely due to his ability, energy and foresight. When he first came from the National Hospital in Queen Square, the Alexandra Hospital was at its beginning in the treatment of tuberculous disease of the hip joint on modern lines. Indeed, it was the only Hospital at that time which was specifically given up for the treatment of this disease. Its funds were low and its friends were few. During his occupancy of the Chair as Secretary of the Hospital, not only did the Alexandra Hospital become a first-class institution, but he carried out negotiations with the London County Council and other Local Authorities, who helped to provide for the maintenance of their patients. This sum, however, fell very short of the money required to run the institution.

It was Mr. Stanley Smith's personality which drew around the institution a number of generous friends who, through his influence, contributed to the funds of the Hospital, so that when it amalgamated with St. Bartholomew's shortly after the war and was transferred to Swanley in Kent, there was a sum of £90,000 which went with it. Furthermore, he engineered an agreement with the Kent County Council whereby the Alexandra Hospital became an institution for dealing with orthopædic cases in that County, but still maintaining its identity by carrying out the wishes of its Trustees, viz., that sixty-eight patients suffering from tuberculous disease of the bones and joints should have priority.

In latter years his energies were devoted to the improvement of the equipment of the Hospital, which he carried through in agreement with St. Bartholomew's Hospital in an admirable fashion. Not only were the buildings altered to meet the requirements, but he obtained sufficient money to build a Nurses' Home and a Superintendent's House.

He now retires full of honours with the knowledge that, during his period as Secretary of the Hospital, it has never been in debt. This is a great achievement, and the Governors of the Hospital feel that they owe to him a very great debt of gratitude, with the good wishes that he may live long in his retirement to enjoy a well-earned rest.

Appointment of a New Secretary

The Committee have appointed Miss Kathleen L. Hyde, B.A., A.H.O.A., to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Stanley Smith's resignation. In addition to being an Honours Graduate of London University, Miss Hyde obtained high honours at both the intermediate and final examinations for the diploma of the Hospital Officers' Association. At her intermediate examination she was a prizewinner, and at her final examination she was at the head of the list of successful candidates, and she is the first woman to be awarded the Gold Medal given at this examination under the new syllabus and regulations. Miss Hyde worked in the London Office of the Hospital, under Mr. Stanley Smith, for seventeen years, and so she has already had a long experience of its administration. The Committee have, therefore, complete confidence in her knowledge of hospital affairs, both in theory and in practice, and wish her a long and successful term of office.

Closing of the London Office

Readers of the Report will notice that the Hospital has no longer a London Office. It was decided when war seemed imminent that the books and records would be safer at Swanley, and accordingly the London Offices were relinquished, and the administrative work is now conducted from the Hospital itself. All correspondence for the Secretary should therefore be addressed to the Hospital at Swanley.

Finance

The chief fact on which to remark in connection with the Income and Expenditure Account is the large amount that of necessity had to be expended on air raid precautions and measures for obscuring the lights of the Hospital. Such work was rendered more than normally difficult by the open-air character of the wards, with the result that the cost was correspondingly heavy. It is hoped, however, that a proportion of the amount spent will be refunded by the Ministry of Health, and that a further sum will be regained by the Hospital at the end of the war by the sale of the metal scaffolding used in the erection of two temporary fire escapes. It will be noticed, too, that the weekly cost of each in-patient was considerably higher than the cost last year. This was due partly to the cost of air raid precautions, etc., and partly to the fact that, although the average number of occupied beds was much lower than usual, the overhead expenses, such as salaries, wages, insurance, rates and taxes, etc., remained the same.

The Committee are happy to report that the total of the dividends and subscriptions for the support of named Cots, and that of the donations both showed a slight increase, and it is much hoped that this increase may be maintained during the present year. One new Cot has been endowed in perpetuity—the “ Meta Muriel Beetham ” Cot—by a legacy bequeathed by the late Mrs. F. A. Beetham in memory of her daughter. The total of the donations included £70 from the Alexandra Day Committee, the Hospital being one of those on H.R.H. The Duchess of Kent’s special list, and £75 from the Bernhard Baron Charitable Trust. Other gifts included a further donation of £15 15s. from Mr. H. W. Kolle, a donation of £5 for the fifteenth year in succession in addition to previous donations from Mrs. H. G. Tetley, and a further donation of £5 from the Worshipful Company of Leathersellers. To these friends, and to all others who have given practical expression to their interest in the Hospital, the Committee tender their most hearty thanks.

It will be noticed that in the list of Donations and Subscriptions on page 39, past donations are no longer included. The Committee regretfully decided upon this omission in view of the paper shortage, and they are sure that all friends of the Hospital will approve of such economy. Copies of the Report will, however, continue to be sent to donors of past years, even although their names do not appear in it.

Legacies have been received during the year as follows: The late Sir Henry William Lucy, £1,037 12s. ; £500 for the perpetual endowment of the “ Meta Muriel Beetham ” Cot above referred to; the late Mrs. W. A. Buchanan, £10 ; the late Mrs. Mary Ann Buckley, a further amount of £8 3s. 5d. ; and the late Francis Vincent Eck Ferrier, Esq., a further amount of £5 0s. 10d.

The Income and Expenditure Accounts and Balance Sheet will be found on pages 22 to 31.

SWANLEY, KENT

EXEMPTION FROM INCOME TAX ON CHARITABLE GIFTS.

It may not be generally known that income tax is not payable on charitable subscriptions, provided that the Subscriber makes an agreement to continue the subscription for a period of seven years. A form for this purpose will be found on the next page, and if any friends of the Hospital will be good enough to fill up this form, and send it to the Secretary, the Hospital will be able to reclaim from the Inland Revenue Authorities the appropriate income tax. For example, at the present rate of tax, the Hospital can reclaim from the Inland Revenue Authorities on an annual subscription of

| | | |
|------------|-----------------------------|-------------|
| £1 1s. 0d. | income tax to the amount of | £0 12s. 7d. |
| £2 2s. 0d. | „ „ „ „ | £1 5s. 2d. |
| £5 5s. 0d. | „ „ „ „ | £3 3s. 0d. |

It will be seen, therefore, that on a number of subscriptions the reclamation of tax would make a considerable difference to the total of the Annual Subscription list. Further, by filling up this form, the Subscriber not only enables the Hospital to reclaim income tax, but obtains the right to deduct the gross amount of the subscription from his own sur-tax return.

Any additional information desired with regard to this matter will be gladly supplied by the Secretary upon application.

Gifts in Kind

The Committee desire to thank most gratefully all those who have shown their sympathy with the work of the Hospital by gifts in kind. Such help is most highly appreciated, and the Committee are sure that if the donors could see the children's delight in the toys and other gifts they receive, they would feel amply rewarded.

The Committee desire especially to mention the highly esteemed gift by Miss Violet Voysey of a signed portrait of Her Majesty the late Queen Alexandra, which was given to Miss Voysey's uncle, the late Admiral Sir Lewis Bayly, by Her Majesty, and accompanied him on all his commands ashore and afloat. The portrait now bears the inscription :—

“ This Picture was presented to Admiral Sir Lewis Bayly by Her Majesty Queen Alexandra, and it remained with him through all his commands in the Service and was one of his treasured possessions. It is now given into the care of the Children of the Alexandra Hospital in the Admiral's Memory.

July, 1939.”

and hangs in the main hall with the Hospital's other portraits of Her Majesty, where it will always receive every care and be particularly treasured.

Another very valued gift was the riddel curtains for the Altar in the Chapel, which were given by Mr. G. P. Baker. These curtains, of crimson printed velvet, which replaced some very old hangings no longer worthy of the Sanctuary, form a fitting background for the Altar, and harmonise both in colour and in dignity with the remainder of the Chapel furnishings. The Committee, as well as the Staff, are most grateful to Mr. Baker for this generous gift.

Special thanks must also be tendered to the Secretary, Mr. H. E. McKenzie, and the other members of the Sidcup Toc H, who, throughout the year, have helped the Hospital in many ways, both by large collections of eggs, fruit, firewood, etc., and also by providing numerous pleasures and amusements for the children, including at Christmas time gifts of Christmas trees and toys, and a party, with a conjurer who performed wonderful feats of magic, and a professional clown who seemed made of indiarubber, so happily did he fall and bounce on the floor. Mr. McKenzie, Mr. Waters and other members have also, during the winter months, given cinematographic shows in the wards for the children. When it is remembered that many of our little patients have been in the Hospital for two, three, or sometimes more years, it will be realised how greatly they delight in the entertainments provided for them by the members of the Sidcup Toc H. The Committee are most grateful for all that has been done for the children in this way.

Nursing Staff

The Committee are glad to be able to report that the Sisters are now on duty for only forty-eight hours, and the Nurses for only fifty-four hours in the week. This reduction of hours has been in force in the case of the Sisters for some considerable time, but it has not long been possible in the case of the Nurses, owing to the difficulty in obtaining an adequate number, and even now a further reduction would be made in their working hours were it possible to be certain of obtaining and retaining permanently a larger staff. In such a Hospital as the Alexandra it is exceptionally important that it should have the benefit of nurses who are happy and contented, and who have time to cultivate a wide variety of interests, since not only are they responsible for the ordinary nursing duties, but also for the general training and development of character and happiness of the children. To many of the little patients the Alexandra is as much a home as a hospital during the most formative years of their lives, and it is of the utmost importance that those who nurse them shall also train them properly in other respects. The Committee are satisfied that all the children in the Hospital, in spite of their physical handicaps, enjoy a thoroughly happy childhood, and receive a training that will be of no less importance to them in their after life than the renewed health and strength which it is the Hospital's primary purpose to give.

The Committee would take this opportunity to express their deep appreciation of the loyal and devoted service rendered to the Hospital and its little patients by the Matron, Sisters and Nurses. Such loyalty and enthusiasm are of inestimable value in the welfare of the children, and the Committee are deeply sensible of the great debt of gratitude which the Hospital owes to its Nursing Staff.

The School

The Hospital school has continued as in former years, and, unlike many schools, suffered no interruption at the beginning of the war. The Committee are greatly indebted to the Teaching Staff for their generous and unstinted service at all times, and especially do they appreciate the efforts they have made since last September to ensure that the school shall continue normally in these difficult times.

The Scouts and Guides

The Committee are most grateful to Mr. R. Shapley, the Group Scoutmaster, to Mr. Douglas Woolsey, the Scoutmaster, and to other friends for their continued and unremitting work in connection with the Hospital Scouts, and to Mrs. David Austin Smith, who has kindly been supervising the Guides since Miss Hoare, the Guide Captain, had to relinquish the work on the outbreak of war. The Scout and Guide work are very popular items in the children's out-of-school occupations and amusements, and the Committee are greatly indebted to all those friends of the Hospital who do so much to occupy and interest its little patients. Special credit must be given to Mr. Woolsey for the success of his production of the play Robin Hood by the Scouts in Ward III. Every Christmas time the boys perform a play for the entertainment of the Staff, but this year it was exceptionally good, and photographs of the boys rehearsing and acting the play were taken for publication in the weekly paper Illustrated, where the whole story with the accompanying pictures appeared in March.

The Linen Fund

Once again the Committee offer their most grateful thanks to all the members of the Linen Fund for their continued help in the provision of bed linen and clothes for the children. Such help is most valuable in these days of difficulty and increasing prices, and it is indeed highly appreciated both by the Committee and the Matron. If readers of the Report could realise how difficult it is to provide suitable clothing for one hundred children, a proportion of whom are up and walking about for the greater part of the day, and how great an interest the Ward Sisters take in seeing their children prettily and attractively clad, the Committee are sure the Linen Fund would receive even greater support than it already enjoys. Special thanks must be extended to Mrs. Ramsay, the Chairman, to Mrs. Burroughs, the Vice-Chairman, and to Mrs. T. K. Elmsley, the Honorary Secretary and Treasurer, for all their hard work and enthusiasm in the cause of the Fund.

An Outline of the History of the Hospital.

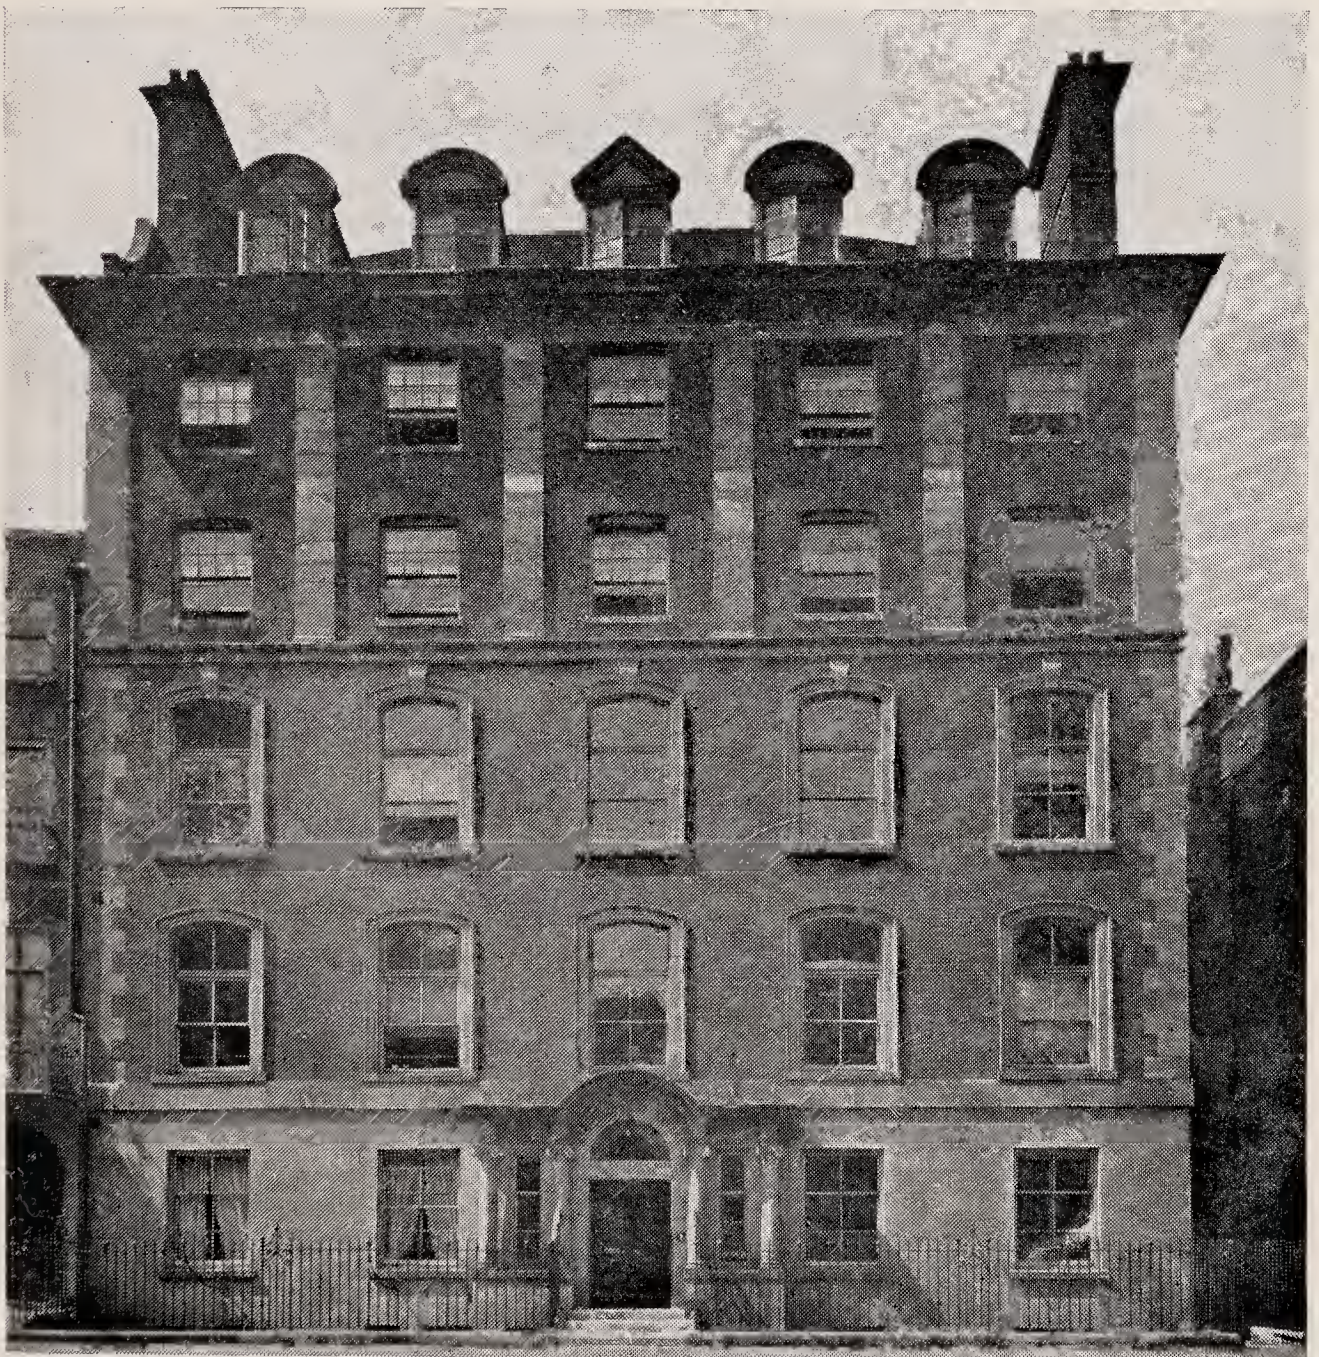

About the year 1865 two ladies, Miss Jane Perceval, afterwards Mrs. Howard Marsh, and Miss Caroline Wood, were nurses in a children's hospital. At that time there were no special hospitals in London for the treatment of diseases of the bones and joints, and these two ladies saw with concern that the children admitted to a general children's hospital with such diseases received no lasting benefit. Often they required continued treatment for at least two or three years, but no ordinary hospital could keep children for this length of time owing to the beds being needed for more urgent cases, and consequently they were discharged when the more acute symptoms of their disease had abated, but before any real cure had been accomplished. It seemed to Miss Perceval and Miss Wood that the need of these children was a special hospital which could keep them under treatment not only while their disease was in an acute stage, but also until they were permanently cured, even although their stay in the hospital extended to several years. They decided, if possible, to establish such a hospital, and accordingly they interested in their project a Mrs. Whitehead, the wife of a clergyman, attached to St. Anne's, Soho, and a Miss Delf. These four ladies approached the then leaders of the medical profession in support of their scheme.

As a result of the efforts of Miss Perceval and her friends, No. 19, Queen Square, Bloomsbury, was bought, and a hospital called "The House of Relief for Children with Chronic Diseases of the Joints," containing ten beds, was opened on the 12th March, 1867, by the Right Reverend Dr. Ellicott, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol. So great was the demand for admission, however, that before the end of the year, the number of beds had to be increased to thirty, and five years later in 1872, No. 18, Queen Square, was acquired, and twenty more beds established. The next year No. 17, Queen Square was bought, and the number of beds was increased to sixty, and then in 1887 the last addition to the original Hospital was made, when No. 1, Queen Square Place was purchased, and a further eight beds and isolation wards provided. A photograph of 17, 18 and 19, Queen Square appears facing this page.

In the meantime, in 1870, Her Royal Highness, the Princess of Wales, afterwards Her Majesty Queen Alexandra, had become Patron of the Hospital, and in 1881 by the gracious permission of Her Royal Highness, the name of the Hospital became "The Alexandra Hospital for Children with Hip Disease."

Original Hospital in Queen Square, 1867—99

Second Hospital, Queen Square, 1899—20

Just before the end of the century the four old houses, built during the reign of Queen Anne, which formed the Hospital, needed such continual and expensive repairs that it was decided to erect an entirely new building in their place. This was done, and on the 20th July, 1899, a new Hospital, a photograph of which appears facing page 14, was opened by Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales and Princess Victoria. In these premises the work of the Hospital was carried on for twenty-one years, until the close of 1920, when it was decided that the children would do better in the country. The building in Queen Square was therefore sold, and by an agreement with St. Bartholomew's Hospital, sanctioned by the Charity Commissioners, the Kettlewell Convalescent Home, no longer used for its original purpose, was placed at the disposal of the patients of the Alexandra Hospital.

During the past nineteen years the Committee have expended some thousands of pounds in making extensive alterations and additions to the Hospital, including the provision of accommodation for more patients, bringing the total number of beds up to one hundred, balconies for the children, an X-ray department, electric light, an electric lift, a new heating and hot water system, an isolation block, a Nurses' Home, and a residence in the grounds for the Medical Superintendent.

During the seventy-three years the Hospital has been in existence it has had three convalescent homes. The first one was at Bournemouth, which was opened in 1874, and subsequently in 1882 named the Helen Branch by permission of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Albany. This Branch was closed in 1893, and in the same year another was opened at Painswick, in Gloucestershire, which was continued until 1914, when it had to be closed on account of the outbreak of the war. The third convalescent home of the Hospital was the one at East Clandon, which was opened in 1903, and closed in December, 1936.

MEDICAL SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT FOR 1939

IN-PATIENTS

The number of beds available for in-patients remained at one hundred throughout the year 1939. At the outbreak of war at the beginning of September 1939, the Hospital was included in the Emergency Medical Services scheme of the Ministry of Health. In accordance therewith a number of beds, approximately 30 per cent, were evacuated, and remained empty until the end of the year. No "war casualties" were, in fact, admitted, although a few patients, evacuated from London hospitals, were taken in at short notice. The number of patients admitted during the year, the figures showing the average number of occupied beds, and the average duration of stay of the patients discharged during the year, will be found in the statistical tables on pages 37 and 38.

This Report deals with patients discharged during the year 1939.

The cases are divided into two main groups, Tuberculous Cases and Non-Tuberculous ("Orthopædic") Cases; of the 74 patients who left the Hospital during the year, 30 were cases admitted under the Tuberculosis Regulations, and 44 were non-tuberculous cases.

TUBERCULOUS CASES

The following tables, which show the duration and immediate results of in-patient treatment, and the results of the observation of doubtful cases admitted for diagnosis, are drawn up in accordance with the regulations of the Minister of Health as to the records kept by medical officers of institutions approved by the Minister of Health for the treatment of tuberculosis. (Mem. 37/T. (revised) 1930).

NOTES ON THE ABOVE TABLES

In the first of the above tables it is recorded that two patients left the Hospital with their tuberculous disease “not quiescent.” In each of these cases the patient’s “discharge” was, in fact, transfer to another hospital for continuation of treatment because the patient had passed the age limit for in-patients of the Alexandria Hospital.

In the second of the above tables the case admitted for diagnosis, and diagnosed as being tuberculous, was that of a girl admitted as a possible case of sacro-iliac disease. The revised diagnosis was that of abdominal tuberculous lymphadenitis, and so her case is not classed with those in the first of the above tables.

In the following list the cases of bone and joint tuberculosis treated to a conclusion of their stay in the Alexandria Hospital during the year are classified according to the parts affected. All the cases were discharged as “Quiescent or Arrested” except one case each of spinal disease and hip disease, who, as mentioned above, were transferred elsewhere on account of their age:—

|---|---------|
| Spinal column | 5 cases |
| Sternum and rib | 1 case |
| Hip-joint | 9 cases |
| Knee-joint | 8 cases |
| Ankle-joint or foot | 3 cases |
| Elbow-joint | 1 case |
| Digits of hand or foot | 3 cases |

A total of 30 cases.

NON-TUBERCULOUS ("ORTHOPÆDIC") CASES

The 44 cases coming under this heading are classified according to the nature of their deformities in the following table, and the results of treatment are indicated :—

| Disease | Results of Treatment | | |
|--|----------------------|----------|-------------------------|
| | Satisfactory | Improved | No Material Improvement |

Some of the patients recorded in the above table as having been discharged "improved," or showing "no material improvement," were cases evacuated at the beginning of the war, in order to clear beds under the Emergency Medical Services scheme of the Ministry of Health. Three of them have since been readmitted.

OPERATIONS

In addition to a certain number of minor operations, in most cases the aspiration of an abscess, carried out under local analgesia,

53 operations were performed under general anæsthesia during the year :—

INFECTIOUS ILLNESS

Two cases only of notifiable infectious illness occurred amongst the children in the Hospital during the year, namely, one case each of diphtheria and scarlet fever ; both these patients were temporarily transferred to an isolation hospital. One probationer nurse and four children in the Hospital contracted chicken-pox ; these five patients were treated in the Hospital's Isolation Department.

OUT-PATIENTS

The Hospital's Out-Patients' Department at St. Bartholomew's Hospital was closed at the outbreak of war, and has not yet been re-opened. The work of this department continued to be confined almost entirely to the supervision and after-care of former in-patients living in, or within a reasonable distance of, London. During the first eight months of the year, that is to say, up to the time when the department was closed, there were 76 attendances. Five new cases only were seen. Since the outbreak of war out-patients who can do so have attended at Swanley ; there were 15 such attendances up to the end of the year, including four new cases.

Four of the Kent County Council's orthopædic clinics, namely, those at Ashford, Margate, Sevenoaks and Sheerness are operated from Swanley, as hitherto. When the war broke out the work at these clinics was partially interrupted for about one month, but all four clinics were working normally again from October 1st. Statistical matter relating to these clinics will be found in the Annual Report of the Kent County Medical Officer.
